

Disposal of complaints by the Commission during the month of January, 2007.

In April 2004, the Govt. of India had designated the Central Vigilance Commission as an agency to receive written complaints or disclosure on any allegation of corruption or of misuse of office by any employee of the Government under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer. On receiving such complaints, the Commission forwards them to the concerned departments for investigation and report without disclosing the identity of the complainant. Accordingly, during January, 2007 the Commission had forwarded 08 such complaint for a report to the respective organisations. 05 complaints have been filed being petty/anonymous/pseudonymous, 18 complaints have been sent for necessary action. Departmental action has been advised in 47 cases.

Apart from the complaints received under Govt. of India Resolution on Public Interest Disclosures & Protection of Informer, during January, 2007, the Commission had forwarded 59 complaints having verifiable and documentary evidences for investigation and report to the departments/organizations concerned. The Commission also forwarded 368 complaints which were either administrative in nature or having no vigilance angle for necessary action/disposal at the ends of the departments/organisations. Besides, 378 complaints which have been found either petty in nature or, anonymous/pseudonymous have been filed. Commission has advised departmental action in 1 case.
